

April, 2014

Dear Parents and Guardians,

I am so glad that you are sowing seed into your teenager's life by allowing them to attend our 2014 Retreat @ Black Lake Conference Center. We are going to have a phenomenal experience.

The theme is: "Built for Relationships, Wired for Connection". Our heavenly Father created us to have a relationship with Him. That is why humans desire intimate relationships with others, because that is how God wired us.

During this weekend retreat experience, your teen will have the opportunity to fellowship, have fun, pray, learn, worship and experience what life could be like if we would connect and build our relationship with God.

We are offering 3 workshops to choose from. These workshops are designed to learn and apply. Also, it provides a space for them to ask questions on topics that are relevant to their life and their faith.

Thank you again for allowing your teenager to attend the 2014 Retreat. My prayer is that it will be a sustained life changing moment, spiritually.

Glory to God,

Pastor John
Youth Pastor
